

I believe relay service should have all call features, call id, call waiting, call forward, 911. I know that Snap Telecommunications, a phone company in SC wants to offer VRS and they aren't being allowed to because the FCC won't let a phone company provide relay. The FCC should let a phone company offer relay and Snap Telecommunications can offer all the call features.